

Phoenix-Talent School District 4

Code: CH
Adopted: 8/4/83

Policy Implementation

The Superintendent is responsible for implementing, by regulation and directives, policies established by the Board.

Policies and the regulations and directives developed to implement policy are designed to realize an efficient and effective school system. All employees and students shall abide by them.

The Superintendent and other administrative staff are responsible for informing staff and students of existing policies and regulations and for overseeing their implementation. Disregard of policy, regulations and/or directives shall be viewed as insubordination, and the Superintendent shall take such action as is appropriate to correct the situation.
