

Phoenix-Talent
School District 4

Code: DA
Adopted: 4/5/84

Fiscal Management Goals

The quantity and quality of the programs of the District are dependent upon the public funds provided to the District and the effective, efficient management of those funds. The Board shall provide guidelines for the use of the District's funds and for reporting their use to the public.

It is the intent of the Board that all expenditures be based on reasonable planning. The District budget shall be the instrument by which the Board and administration make responsible decisions as to the allocation of District funds.

The Superintendent is responsible for budget planning and development and for the fiscal and business operations of the District.

The Board is responsible for adoption of the budget and is the final authority for the expenditure of all funds.
