Method of Approving Building Change

Structural

Additions and modifications to the structure of the District's buildings and grounds will have the approval of the Board.

Administrative requests, along with all recommendations, drawings, costs, and rationale for such changes will be presented to the Board for their consideration and approval.

Murals and Statues constitute a change to the school's appearance and shall have the approval of the Board before being instituted. The building principal shall present sketches and other pertinent information of such to the Board for their consideration and approval prior to physically initiating any project.
