

Title I Parent Involvement Plan

Engaged parents are a critical part of a strong school community. This plan will be jointly monitored and revised, as necessary, with Title I parents and outlines how district schools will communicate, support and build resources for parents, community members and educators to promote high achievement for every Title I student.

Area of Focus	Activities
Developing Parent Knowledge	District schools will support Title I parents and school communities by providing: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • At least annually, a meeting for Title I parents to be informed about Title I, their rights, school performance and student progress data and ways the school will involve parents; • Trainings and professional development opportunities on Title I requirements and tips on implementation throughout the school year; • Sessions that work with Title I parents and educators as equal partners to support achievement with an emphasis on using technology; • Links to early learning and other community partners; • Support to schools to implement the Parent Involvement Plan; • Support schools to provide resources for parents to support learning at home.
Working with Parents as Partners	Title I parents will be engaged through various means to include, but not limited to, the website, backpacked and electronic flyers, newsletters, parent portal of Power School, etc., to participate in the joint development and/or review of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • School-level parent involvement components: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • School-level Title I Parent Involvement Plan • School-Parent Compact • Title I Parent Involvement Allocation Spending Plan • School-level budgets • District-level parent involvement components: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Parents will be invited at least annually each school year to give input on the district Title I Parent Involvement Plan, Family and Community Engagement Policy and Continuous Improvement Plan.
Access for Parents	The district is committed to providing all Title I parents with the opportunity to participate. The district will meet the needs of parents by having: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Varied meeting dates, times and locations for trainings, workshops and professional development opportunities; • Multiple methods of communication to families about opportunities; • Advocates, interpreters and translated documents when necessary; • Supports for parents to participate where possible, such as childcare and transportation.