

Remedial Programs

The District shall have a planned program of basic skills development. Appropriate curriculum and instruction shall be provided for students who have not achieved the basic knowledge and skills appropriate for their grade level in reading, language arts, and mathematics. Such remedial instruction shall be available through grade 12.

The purpose of the program shall be to bring the student to the appropriate level of achievement as rapidly as possible so that the student can participate in the regular programs of the District.
