Special Interest Materials

In general, supplementary printed materials from nonschool sources should have the approval of the superintendent before being used in the schools. This approval may be given to materials that are of obvious educational quality, which supplement and enrich text and reference book materials for definite school courses, and which are timely.

Teachers may use special aids such as models, films, slides, pictures, charts and exhibits for educational purposes with the express approval of the superintendent or designee although these materials may bear the name of a commercial business firm that provided the aid.

Educational films and all video rentals secured from or through commercial sources will be approved by the superintendent or designee prior to their use in the schools.

All copyright laws regulating the use of such material will be strictly adhered to.
