Truancy

The school attendance officer is responsible for enforcing attendance policies and regulations and has the authority to perform the duties of truant officer as provided by Oregon statutes.

Any unauthorized absence from school is truancy and shall be treated as such. The superintendent or designee will notify the school attendance officer of students who are truant.

The superintendent will develop procedures whereby those students who are considered truant may be subject to the following penalties: detention, suspension, expulsion, ineligibility to participate in athletics or other activities, loss of credit or grade reduction, in accordance with state law and Board policy.

These procedures will be published annually for student, staff and parent information.
