

Administrative Team

The administrative team shall consist of the principals, directors, vice principals, deputy clerk, supervisors and the superintendent.

Administrators are expected to attend meetings as directed by the superintendent.

Team management decisions will be made when possible by consensus. The superintendent will make all decisions on which the team does not come to agreement. The superintendent has the responsibility to explain to team members his reasons for veto. The superintendent also may decide when a decision is his responsibility alone. Team members have the responsibility to consult, confer, and when necessary, confront one another in a professional, nonpersonal, confidential manner. Team discussion and decisions are confidential except by agreement of the team.
