

Sequence of Authority

Generally the Supervisor will be available to all transportation staff for required consultation and direction. However, there will be times when the supervisor will not be available. During these times, the lead mechanic will act as the supervisor and will assume operational control of the department.

For consultation and direction regarding matters of policy and other nonoperational questions, the lead mechanic will refer the question directly to the superintendent or will seek the superintendent's counsel and direction before taking any action.