

Vacation – 12-Month Employees

A maximum of five working days of vacation a school year may be taken by the 12-month employee when a substitute will be needed.

In all cases, the vacation time must have prior approval of the employee's supervisor.

This administrative rule may be altered by the superintendent only.