

Emancipation of Students

1. If a student is sixteen (16) years of age or older, living on his/her own, the student can write his/her own excuses.
2. If a student is married, he/she can write his/her own excuses.
3. If a student is eighteen (18) years or younger, living with parents or guardian, the district will honor only excuses written by the parents or guardian.