

Public Sales on School Property

Public sales on school property are subject to the following guidelines:

1. Sales are not to conflict with the school program;
2. School buildings, facilities and property used in the sale must be scheduled through the community school coordinator's office;
3. The sales must have the approval of the administrator or designee in charge of the building facility, or property being used during the sale;
4. The sale must ultimately benefit a student or students of the district;
5. Sales are not to be in conflict with the Class A lunch program of any building;
6. A school employee or person approved by the principal must be present when school facilities are used for a sale;
7. Any group using school facilities must pay for all damage and special cleanup that is incurred while using the facilities;
8. Advertising for any public sale is to be approved by the administrator or designee of the building where the sale is to be conducted.
