Special Interest Materials

In general, special interest printed materials from nonschool sources should have the approval of the superintendent or designee before being used in the schools. This approval may be given to materials that are of obvious educational quality, supplement and enrich text and reference book materials for definite school courses, and are timely.

Printed materials from nonschool sources should not be displayed or distributed in the schools or on the school grounds without approval of the superintendent or designee. Students may not be used as agents for distributing nonschool materials to the homes without the superintendent's approval.

Educational films and all videos secured from or through commercial sources will be approved by the principal prior to their use in the schools.

All copyright laws regulating the use of such material will be strictly followed.
