Orig. Code(s): DM

Valuables in District Buildings

Students and employees shall not leave money, valuables or keys in a district building where these may be picked up by a person not entitled to their possession.

Students and employees who may receive or collect money or valuables from any source must either keep it on their person until they dispose of it or turn it over to the principal or authorized person for safe keeping, accepting a receipt for same. Substantial amounts of money are to be placed promptly in the school safe.

Students and employees who suffer losses for themselves or others by failure to observe these regulations will be expected to bear such losses personally.
