Adopted: 1/10/05
Readopted: 6/12/06
Orig. Code(s): GCQAB

Private Tutoring for Pay

No private tutoring for which a teacher or other instructional staff receives remuneration will be allowed in school buildings, with district property or during normal working hours during the contract year.

No teacher or other instructional staff shall tutor for remuneration a student assigned to his or her class, or whom the staff member coaches, monitors, or oversees in any official capacity as part of their normal working assignment.

If the district determines that an exception would be in the best interest of a student, his or her family, and/or the district, the superintendent may approve an exception upon written request.
