Special Interest Materials

In the selection of media for the audio-visual materials center, at least three instructors must preview and evaluate any media considered for purchase. Only media which is very highly recommended shall be purchased. The final selection for purchase shall be made by the audio-visual committee and purchases must have the approval of the entire committee. The committee shall make its selection of media on the basis of curriculum needs and shall consider fulfilling shortages in certain areas of need. Any form of media containing controversial subject matter must be previewed and approved by the committee before a purchase is made.

In general, supplementary printed materials from commercial, political, religious or other nonschool sources should have the approval of the superintendent or designee before being used in the schools. This approval may be given to materials that are of obvious educational quality, which supplement and enrich text and reference book materials for definite school courses and which are timely.

Advertising materials of commercial, political or religious nature should not be displayed or distributed in the schools or on the school grounds without the superintendent's prior approval. Students may not be used as agents for distributing nonschool materials to the homes without the approval of the superintendent.

Teachers may use special aids such as models, films, slides, pictures, charts and exhibits for educational purposes with the express approval of the principal although these materials may bear the name of a commercial business firm that provided the aid.

Educational films and all video rentals secured from or through commercial sources will be approved by the principal prior to their use in the schools.

All copyright laws regulating the use of such material will be strictly followed.
