Special and Emergency Board Meetings

Special meetings may be called from time to time as circumstances may demand at the call of the chairman or on petition of a majority of the members of the Board.

According to Oregon Revised Statutes, Board meetings “may be convened upon written or printed notice by order of the chairman, upon the request of the three members at least 24 hours before such meeting is to be held or it may be convened by common consent of the Board members.”

At a special meeting of the Board, no business other than that stated in the notice shall be transacted unless all members of the Board are present in which case any business that may come before the Board may be transacted.
