Code: JFD
Adopted: 8/08/94
Orig. Code(s): 5370

Students of Legal Age

When a student reaches the age of eighteen (18), becomes emancipated in accordance with law or is attending an institution of post-secondary education, the rights accorded to the consent required of the parents are transferred to the student, except when the type and severity of a disabling condition is determined to preclude the granting of such rights. In such a case, the rights are maintained by the parent or guardian.
