

Development of Administrative Regulations

In order to provide a systematic means for interpreting and implementing policies and legal mandates, appropriate administrative regulations and procedures shall be formulated and maintained. These regulations and procedures should prescribe in necessary detail how, when, where and by whom a course of action is to be accomplished.

All regulations and procedures shall be consistent with existing policies, and in the event that regulations and procedures are necessary to cover matters not directly related to an existing policy statement, they shall not nullify or impair an adopted policy.

The initiation and development of such regulations and procedures shall be the responsibility of the superintendent, who shall make provision for appropriate staff involvement.
