

Hiring of Licensed Staff

Applicants will be considered for specific positions on the basis of written job descriptions. The names of persons recommended for employment will be submitted by the superintendent to the Board for formal approval.

Applicants for licensed positions will:

1. Complete an application form provided by the district.
2. Possess the necessary training and license for the position.
3. Provide requested information concerning training and experience.
4. Be available for a personal interview should it be necessary.

It is the policy of the Board to employ instructional staff who hold the appropriate Oregon teaching license.
