Code: IGADA
Adopted: 10/13/86-U
Readopted: 9/8/97; 7/13/98

Work Experience

Seniors in good academic standing and enrolled in a minimum of five classes may qualify for early dismissal during the regular school day so that they may work, attend a community college or pursue other educational endeavors. This privilege may be revoked for attendance, behavior or credit problems.

Select juniors may qualify for work privilege with parent, counselor and building administrator consent. To be considered, a junior must be enrolled in six classes, meet behavior criteria, have counselor and adviser support and have parent permission.

Any special education student, for whom an Individual Education Plan provides for work experience/training, may participate in on or off campus training. The training provided will be according to the student's written plan and will be developed and implemented under the supervision of the district.
