

Student Policies, Goals and Objectives

Through its student policies, the Board seeks to advance these goals:

1. To enhance equal educational opportunities for all students;
2. To promote regular attendance;
3. To respect the constitutional rights of all students;
4. To develop in students a sense of personal responsibility for their actions;
5. To assure student safety, health and welfare;
6. To deal justly and constructively with all students in matters of discipline;
7. To provide an environment where students can learn and improve on their individual character and value.
