Orientation of New Board Members

New Board members, upon election, shall be invited to sit with the Board as nonvoting observers from the time of election until officially taking office on July 1.

Board policies are available on the district website.

The superintendent and/or Board chair shall arrange a special meeting with the new member(s) to go over policies and to answer any questions about the operation of the district.

The Board shall encourage new members to attend appropriate statewide workshops for orientation of new Board members.
