

Stanfield School District 61

Code: EC
Adopted: 11/8/94
Readopted: 4/10/08
Orig. Code(s): EC/ECE

Management of Buildings and Grounds

The superintendent will develop and maintain plans and procedures necessary to assure the security of district properties and to provide for a continuing program of preventive maintenance designed to ensure that buildings are clean, safe and efficiently operated. The maintenance supervisor, subject to the direction of the superintendent, will have overall responsibility for the maintenance and security of the district's buildings and grounds.

The maintenance supervisor will be responsible for the care, upkeep and security of the buildings and for supervision of school custodial services.

Losses incurred through fire, theft, accident or vandalism will be reported to the maintenance supervisor as soon as they are discovered. The maintenance supervisor may report such losses to an appropriate agency as well as to the superintendent and Board.

The superintendent will keep the Board informed about district properties and will make other such reports as the Board requests.
