Media Access to Students

The principal of each school may withhold the grade reports, diploma or other records of the student who owes a fee or has lost or willfully damaged or injured district property, until the student has paid the amount owed in accordance with the following guidelines.

1. Fee - A fee is allowed by ORS 339.155;
2. Notice -The student's parents shall be given written notice of the possible withholding at least 10 days in advance of the actual withholding;
3. Hearing -Notice shall include intimidation of fees and/or cost of property. The parents may have a hearing on the question of withholding the student's education records by a written request during the 10 days in advance of the actual withholding. Request for a hearing shall be made to the superintendent.

The district may waive the amount owed according to district policy.

The parent or guardian of the student shall be liable for damages.

The withholding of records in accordance with Board policy shall not prevent inspection of student education records by a parent or guardian. The withholding of student education records shall not prevent the transfer of such records to another district, private school or school of higher education, as provided by law.
