

Memorials Honoring Deceased Students/Staff

Offers of memorial scholarships will be submitted to the superintendent together with information concerning the purpose of the memorial, student criteria and administration of the scholarship fund.

The superintendent may receive items as a memorial to a student or person having a special significance to the students or school. Items received as memorials become the property of the district. Before accepting any memorial item, the superintendent shall consider any additional maintenance cost to the district.

The superintendent, at his or her discretion, may choose to memorialize a student or staff member who has passed away with:

1. A bench with plaque with deceased's name.
2. A living memorial scholarship.
3. A living memorial with a plaque in the media center. Funds go toward the purchase of books for the media center.
4. A plaque placed on an art piece, i.e., a sculpture.
5. A living memorial, which funds go toward a scholarship to, assists students.
6. A score board with a deceased name.
7. A plaque at the base of a flagpole with a list of deceased.
8. A plaque on bleachers, "in memory of..."
9. A plaque on the backstop, "in memory of..."
10. A memorial page in the school yearbook.
11. An annual award using the deceased's name for an attribute, such as: good sportsmanship, leadership, etc.
