

Staff Participation in Community Activities

The Board expects the members of the school staff and other employees to fully participate in the life of the community in the manner and spirit that could be reasonably expected of well-educated, intelligent, cultured citizens.

It is highly recommended and encouraged that all school employees make their home and residence within the boundaries of the district. Beside the many responsibilities connected directly to the school, school employees have varied civic responsibilities. Among these is the responsibility to vote. Teachers and other employees new to the district should take care of registering as soon as possible.
