

Alternative Educational Programs Following Expulsion

Prior to any student expulsion, the district will document to the parent or guardian of that student the appropriate educational alternatives. Such alternative programs will be instructional, or instructional combined with counseling.

The proposal of potential alternatives will be hand delivered or sent by certified mail to assure that the parent/guardian has received it prior to the time of actual expulsion.

Appropriate programs may be either public or private (non-sectarian). Programs may be provided by the district as a separate school, evening classes or tutorial instruction. Homebound instruction could be considered an appropriate alternative.

If a student, sixteen years or older, voluntarily withdraws from the school, the district must provide the same documentation of alternative programs. However, the district has no obligation to pay for such programs.

If a student is not successful in the alternative program, there is no obligation to propose or fund a second alternative.
