

Sherman County S. D.

Code: IKAD
Adopted: 8/14/95

Parent/Student Conferences

A friendly relationship between the teachers and the parents is essential to the welfare of the students.

Conferences between a parent and a teacher should be held at a time when both are free of distractions. The teacher, being specialized in student guidance, can render valuable service to receptive parents. A teacher should receive a parent with an attitude which is conducive to the establishment of an atmosphere of friendly cooperation.

It shall be the policy of the district to arrange teacher-parent conferences on a regularly scheduled basis at the discretion of the superintendent and/or the principal.
