

Siuslaw School District 97J

Code: CG

Adopted: 02/12/97

Revised/Readopted: 12/11/13

Special Programs Administration

The district operates many specially funded programs which must be administered in accordance with particular federal and/or state laws, regulations and conditions. The Board, through its approval of such programs and acceptance of funds, is ultimately responsible for these programs although many of the regulations which govern them are established by other agencies.

The superintendent is charged with the responsibility for coordinating funded projects, for administration of grants and for ensuring that the various departments which operate these programs do so within the guidelines pertaining to the particular program unless otherwise stipulated in the grant requirements.
