

Internet-Based, Crowd Funding Solicitation

All district or school internet-based, crowd funding or other similar types of monetary solicitation shall be in compliance with all district fund-raising policies, requiring preapproval from the superintendent or business manager.

The superintendent or business manager shall monitor the internet-based and/or crowd-funding site to ensure that no student information is disclosed improperly and no images are used without permission.

The superintendent or business manager shall insure that the internet-based and/or crowd-funding site is legitimate, and that the terms of the site are being followed.

All technology requests for funding shall follow appropriate policies and use guidelines.

All district or school funding will be on the district's system.

All technology purchases or request for purchase will be approved by the director of technology.

All non-monetary items obtained become property of the district and all inventory procedures apply.

All monetary donations shall be recorded in the proper school or district fund. No school or district banking information shall be given out. A check will be requested to be mailed to the school or district in the name of the school or district and not to the individual.

A file will be maintained by the superintendent or business manager that documents the superintendent or business manager approval, details of the project, a print out of the website, copies of all agreements and permission forms, copies of any checks of monetary donation received as well as the inventory listing non-monetary donations.
