

Use of Tobacco

Schools will develop procedures and consequences, up to an including suspension and expulsion from school, for violations of the district's tobacco use. Schools will furnish an annual notification to students about the district's tobacco use policy. Schools will develop and teach a curriculum informing students of the legal, social and health consequences of tobacco use.