Orig. Code(s): GCD

Employment of Staff

The Board authorizes the superintendent to employ competent and highly qualified personnel to fill all administrative, licensed, and classified positions for the district. Personnel employed under this policy shall be placed on the proper step of the adopted salary schedule, shall hold proper credentials as required by Board policy and state statutes, and shall comply with all applicable state and district rules and regulations.

Information regarding all administrators and licensed teachers employed under this policy shall be made available to the Board prior to confirmation. The Board shall then elect teachers to positions with the action recorded in official Board minutes.
