Special Education - Personnel

The District responsibility for personnel is:

1. The district will take measurable steps to recruit, hire, train and retain highly qualified personnel to provide special education and services.
2. The district will employ highly qualified special education teachers, paraprofessional personnel, and related services providers as defined and licensed by the Oregon Teacher Standards and Practices Commission (TSPC) or, in the case of related services providers, the appropriate professional licensing board.
3. The district will ensure that all district personnel necessary to implement special education and related services and special education programs are appropriately and adequately prepared, subject to the requirements of state and federal law, including both the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) or Child Left Behind (NCLB), and the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA).
