Computer Technology

The proliferation of computers throughout society requires that students receive instruction on their use. To ensure that maximum benefits are realized from the investment required for the equipment, the following will apply:

1. The primary purpose of microcomputers in the district will be for instruction and education of students.
2. Computer users will recognize and adhere to existing copyright and telecommunication laws.
3. All hardware purchased must be durable, use a wide range of software, be compatible with other school hardware and be easy to maintain.
4. Network software will be approved by the district technology advisory committee. Building supported software will be selected in accordance with Board policy II/IIA Instructional Resources/Instructional Materials and approved by the building technology committee.
5. Only educational software is authorized on district computers, which can be accessed by students.
6. All purchases of software will be coordinated through the technology supervisor
7. A technology committee appointed by the superintendent will annually review and update a priority list for purchase of computers and software and a plan for computer acquisition and use.
