

Springfield School District 19

Code: JECB
Adopted: 9/25/06
Readopted: 3/10/08
Orig. Code(s): JECB

Admission of Nonresident Students

The Board reserves the right to accept/reject non-resident students based upon the availability of space, resources, personnel, appropriate programs and a positive review of educational records.

The Board may consider situations such as:

1. Students with unusual academic needs or abilities that can be met more readily by school services available in a non-resident school district;
2. Students living in remote areas whose school transportation can be met more conveniently and efficiently by the non-resident school district;
3. Students with unusual disciplinary or emotional problems who would have a greater ability to succeed in the environment of the non-resident school district;
4. Students whose parents move from the District during a school year; and
5. Students whose parents are employed within the non-resident district.

The Board shall deny admission to a non-resident student who has been expelled from another district for a weapons policy violation.

The Board may deny admission to a non-resident student who is under expulsion from another district for reasons other than a weapons policy violation.

The District may enroll non-resident students as follows:

1. By written consent of the affected school boards;
2. By unilaterally admitting with tuition a non-resident student whereby neither district is eligible for state school fund moneys;
3. If a juvenile court determines it is in the student's best interest, a student placed in a substitute care program outside the district will continue to be considered a resident student and allowed to attend the school the student attended prior to placement. The public agency placing the student in a substitute care program will be responsible for the transportation of the student, if public agency funds are available.

The Board shall deny regular school admission to nonresident students who are under expulsion from another school district for a weapons policy violation. The Board will deny regular school admission to nonresident students who are under expulsion from another district for reasons other than a weapons policy violation. Inquiries about alternate education program placement may be made.

The McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act ensures that the homeless youth have equal access to free, appropriate public education. Students who are determined to be homeless will be enrolled in Springfield School District and considered to be resident students while they remain enrolled in Springfield Schools.
