Income from Program-Related Sales and Services

Through certain vocational activities, students provide goods and services at a charge to the public. These activities are designed for educational purposes, not to be competitive with businesses in the community.

Charges for work performed and goods sold through these activities will be kept current with costs for the particular service or item offered for sale.

Money collected will be deposited in the student body accounts of the building. The principal is responsible for safety of funds and all records of accounting.
