Use of Feature Films/Videos

The Board recognizes the value of films and video tapes as an important instructional tool. However, the Board directs the administration and staff to remember that certain types of films and video tapes are not appropriate for viewing in a school setting.

Therefore, the Board directs its administration and staff to observe the following guidelines:

1. Films or video materials will not be shown, at any time, below 8th grade, if the film has a rating of “PG-13,” “R” or a higher rating, without prior administrative approval;
2. Films or video materials will not be shown, at any time above the 8th grade, if the film has a rating of “R” or higher without prior administrative approval;
