Code: DFEA
Adopted: 10/14/09
Orig. Code(s): AR-400-26

Admission to Events

The College will provide complimentary passes to faculty and staff for the purpose of attending regularly scheduled college events, including but not limited to, theatrical and musical productions, athletic and rodeo activities, usage of general gym facilities such as the cardio room and activities sponsored by Student Programs.

The College believes that including faculty and staff in these activities not only supports college activities but provides a process for building community. Complimentary passes are considered a college benefit to all employees unless the event or activity is a special fund raiser and all persons are charged a fee for entry without exceptions. The College will establish accounting procedures, including any possible income tax liability, consistent with this policy.
