Code: JB
Adopted: 10/14/09
Readopted: 3/15/11

Equal Educational Opportunity

Every student will be given equal educational opportunities regardless of age, race, gender, color, national origin, religion, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation¹ or marital status.

Further, no student will be excluded from participating in, denied the benefits of, or subjected to discrimination under any educational program or activity conducted by the College. The College will treat its students without discrimination as this pertains to course offerings, counseling, employment assistance, curricular and cocurricular activities.

The President will designate at least one employee to comply with and carry out the College's responsibilities under Title IX. This person will investigate complaints communicated to the district alleging noncompliance with Title IX. The name, address and telephone number will be provided to all students and employees.

Student complaints regarding Title IX should follow administrative regulation JFHA-AR(2) - Student Complaint Procedure - Other Non-Instructional Related Issues; employee complaints regarding Title IX should follow policy GBM - Staff Complaints and Appeals.
