Payroll

The Board shall, at the first meeting of the fiscal year, authorize the superintendent or designate to make salary payments according to the negotiated agreement, district budget, district policies and state law. Employee health, accident, dental and other types of insurance will be provided as outlined in the agreements. Mandatory payroll deductions will be withheld as required by state and federal law.

No other automatic deductions except those required by law will be made from an employee's pay without authorization of the Board.
