Emergency Procedures and Disaster Plan

In compliance with the provisions of Oregon Revised Statutes and Oregon Administrative Rules, the Board has adopted policies and procedures for the safety and well being of the staff and students.

It is the policy of the Board to provide staff and students with appropriate instruction covering procedures for dealing with emergency situations if and when they arise.

The district emergency plan shall consist of a written set of emergency procedures that will give adequate guidelines and direction in times of crisis such as fire, explosion, nuclear threat, civil disturbance or earthquake.

All district employees are to become familiar with all emergency procedures and should actively participate in all emergency drills and in-service meetings. Department heads and teachers are responsible for providing appropriate emergency procedure instruction for all persons under their care and control.
