Student Demonstrations and Petitions

It is important to the orderly use of district facilities that the use of all space be planned in advance.

Students, staff and administration are all responsible for the activities that are conducted in a school. Indeed, the district is held accountable to a public, a Board, a legislature that gives fiscal support; accountable to the image of the institution and accountable to each other.

Students shall be permitted to hold meetings on school property under the following conditions:

1. The meeting shall be scheduled in advance;
2. Normal class activities shall not be disrupted;
3. The meeting shall incite no hazard to person or property;
4. The meeting shall be sponsored by district officials or an official school club or organizations.
