Second Language

Students who self-identify as a Second Language Learner on a Home Language Survey, shall be given a test of their English Language ability. If evaluation indicates a need, such students shall be provided with appropriate instructional assistance until it is deemed appropriate to reclassify the student.

All state laws and regulations shall guide the identification, assessment and reclassification of said student.

Students who have exited an ELL program in another school or state shall not be re-evaluated unless requested by a parent/guardian.
