

Special Interest Materials

Fundraising, Solicitation/Advertising by non-school groups.

Printed materials from non-school sources should not be displayed or distributed in the schools or on the school grounds without prior approval from the Director and/or School Board. Students may not be used as agents for distributing non school advertising materials to the homes without the district's determination that the purpose supports the school's mission.

Teachers may use special aids such as models, films, slides, pictures, charts and exhibits for educational purposes with the express approval of the principal even though these materials may bear the name, logo or advertisement of a commercial business firm that provided the aid, so long as it does not supersede the educational benefit of the material. Educational films and videos rentals secured from or through commercial sources that display short advertising before or after the film/video will be approved by the lead teacher for use in the schools if the teacher deems the advertising does not detract from the educational purpose of the video. All copyright laws regulating the use of such material will be followed.
