Licensed Evaluation - Administrators

Each probationary and contracted administrator will be evaluated annually by his/her immediate supervisor. The administrator's objectives for the year as well as the continuing duties and responsibilities as defined in the job description for each position will be the basis for the evaluation.

The purpose of administrator evaluations is to assist administrators to develop and strengthen their professional abilities, to improve the instructional program, and to improve the management of the ESD.

The administrative evaluation system will also include provisions for initiating dismissal or contract non-extension procedures, if the need for such procedures is indicated.
