Quorum at Board Meetings

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum. A smaller number may meet and adjourn from time to time to compel the presence of absent members. Regular attendance at Board meetings is mandatory and the Board is obliged to declare the office of a director vacant if a member ceases to discharge the duties of his office for two consecutive months unless prevented therefrom by sickness or other unavoidable cause.

The affirmative vote of the majority of the members of the Board is required to transact any business.
