

Willamina School District 30J

Code: IGBAA
Adopted: 1/94
Readopted: 4/11/05
Orig. Code(s): IGBAA

Extended School Year

This district will provide each eligible student with a program of special education and/or related services designed to maintain, in the least restrictive environment, the current level of the student's skills and behavior in areas identified as crucial in reaching self-sufficiency.

The type and length of service which a student requires shall be determined on an individual basis by the student's Individual Education program (IEP) Team.

Extended school year services shall be designed to maintain acquired skills or to acquire high school credits. New goals and objectives may not be added to a student's IEP for implementation in the extended school year program unless those goals and objectives are determined by the IEP Team to be necessary to maintain the skills, behaviors or information for which extended school year services are designed.
