Special Interest Materials

In general, supplementary printed materials from commercial, political, religious, or other nonschool sources should have the approval of the superintendent before being used in the schools. This approval may be given to materials that are of obvious educational quality, supplement and enrich text and reference book materials for definite school courses, and are timely.

Advertising materials of commercial, political, or religious nature should not be displayed or distributed in the schools or on the school grounds. Students may not be used as agents for distributing nonschool materials to the homes without the approval of the superintendent.

Teachers may use special aids such as models, films, slides, pictures, charts, and exhibits for educational purposes with the express approval of the superintendent/principal although these materials may bear the name of a commercial business firm that provided the aid.

Educational films and all video rentals secured from or through commercial sources will be approved by the principal prior to their use in the schools.

All copyright laws regulating the use of such material will be strictly adhered to.
