At the discretion of the superintendent and with Board approval, vacant or new administrative positions may be filled from among the ranks of administrators currently employed by the district or other qualified staff without having considered applicants not presently employed by the district or employed by the district in other positions.

Principals shall be eligible to apply for other administrative and supervisory positions or request reassignment to a teaching position.

Any administrator may be reassigned if it is determined by the superintendent that the reassignment is in the district's best interest.
